Job Posting – Facility Manager

The Northern Vancouver Island Salmonid Enhancement Association (NVISEA) is seeking a Manager for the Quatse River Hatchery in Port Hardy. This is a dynamic and challenging role with a wide range of duties and responsibilities both in the field and the office. Some of the duties of the Manager position include supervision, staffing, fish production planning, multiple contract administration, expense allocations, payroll, fish husbandry practices and facility/grounds maintenance. The Manager will be responsible for three full time staff, with seasonal employment of up to ten additional employees.

Candidates are required to have completed a post secondary program, ideally in Fisheries and Aquaculture Technology or an equivalent amount of hands on facility experience. The ideal candidate will have excellent computer skills and a valid BC driver's licence. Assets include swift water rescue, level one first aid, net pen fish culture experience, financial bookkeeping experience and general maintenance skills.

NVISEA operates the Quatse River Hatchery, Quatse Salmon Stewardship Centre and O'Connor Lake Net Pens. We also partner with the Friends of the Marble River to seasonally staff the Marble River Public Involvement Program (PIP) Hatchery. NVISEA's Quatse River Hatchery has undergone a complete facility rebuild, with the addition of an outstanding world class Interpretive Centre. Please visit our web site www.nvisea.org for more information on NVISEA.

If you love salmon and rivers, enjoy outdoor work, are in good physical health and seek a challenging and rewarding position please forward your resume to:
